

NSLA (National School Lunch Act funding to improve instruction/increase achievement of at-risk students) funds were received in the amount of $423,553 with a carryover of $11,770.55 for a total of $435,323.55. Funds are allocated for high school math and literacy classroom materials and supplies, completion of the high school computer lab, high school technology materials and supplies, and salaries/benefits for class size reduction teachers, exceeds standards teachers, school nurse, high school paraprofessionals, and instructional facilitators.